Met Fever

While Major league baseball as a whole seems to be bogged down in suits, rumors and collective bargaining negotiations, the Lynchburg Meta of the Carolina League are full of optimism for the upcoming 1976 Carolina League campaign. Meta General Manager, Frank Cappiello, today announced the release of the Mets 1976 schedule as well as some of the highlights the Lynchburg area baseball fans can look forward to at City Stadium this season. Met Fever is in the air and all signs point toward renewed interest in the future of professional baseball in Lynchburg.

The Mets open their 1976 season in Winston-Salem on Friday evening, April 16, in a 7:30 game. City Stadium will come alive the following afternoon as the Mets host the Winston-Salem Red Sox in a Saturday afternoon home opener. Game time for the opener is scheduled for 2 p.m. There has been an opening day ticket drive under way and Cappiello reports an advance sale of 1,000 tickets already sold for the home opener.

A split season format will be used by the Carolina League this season which will divide the 140 game season into two 70 game halves. The first season Opens on April 16th and closes on June 24 with the second season opening June 25 and ending on Sept. 2. The winner of the first half will play the winner of the second half in a best of five Championship series beginning on Sept. 3. The Mets will play Western Carolina League competition on 16 occasions during their 140 game season in the inter-locking style that was initiated by League President, Wallace McKenna, last season.

All Sunday games will be played at 2 p.m. this season with the exception of the game on the Fourth of July. The 4th of July show promises to be a great one with the Mets meeting the Salem Pirates in a 7:30 game followed by a big post-Game fireworks display to be found in the Lynchburg area. All other home games will start at 7:30 with the exception of Opening Day and a double-header scheduled for July 17 with the Peninsula Phillies. Game time for the double-header is 6:30.

The annual Carolina League All-star game will be played in Salem this season with the Carolina League All-Stars playing the Charleston Charlies of the International League. Date for the All-Star game is August 20th.

In addition to the Fourth of July promotion, (Cappiello has announced several Special events to be held at City Stadium this season. Headlining the list is the Evil Knieval-type motorcycle daredevil, Gary Davis, who will be making his appearance at City Stadium on Sunday, June 13th in an attempt to jump 12 automobiles. Kids will have their special nights at the park with scheduled Pony, Bike, and Helmet Night promotions. Four special Family Nights are on tap when the entire family will be admitted for one special price. Each Sunday one Lynchburg area family will be honored as the Official Met Family of the Week. In addition to receiving a day at the ball game, compliments of the Mets, the family will be taken to dinner at the Family Fish house following the game to make the day a very special one. On the final night of the season, the Mets will be giving away their Official "Met Fever" mobile to some lucky fan, compliments of Virginia Ford.

Other special Nights include Pepsi and Coke give-away nights, Hot Dog Nights, Dairy Night and Bank Night. All in all, there promises to be something for everyone this season at the ball park. For fans who can't make it to the park, the Mets will be broadcasting all of their home games and 20 of their weekend road games over WWOD FM: The Mets have hired Rich Brenner to do the play by play for the Met game broadcasts.

The present attitude is one of soaring optimism in the Met's Front office and in the Lynchburg area. Met Fever bumper stickers have been seen on a number of Lynchburg vehicles and it's a sign of positive things to come this summer for professional baseball in Lynchburg. Jack Kaye, Mets Field Manager, is anxiously awaiting the opening of the season to display his hustling chargers and Club officials are expecting an opening date attendance of 4,500 to welcome the Mets to Lynchburg. Met Fever is here and all the action starts on April 17th at City Stadium. See you there.

SCOUTS PARTICIPATING IN PROGRAM

Flames of Freedom

March 12, 1976, marked the 64th birthday of the founding of Girl Scouts. As night fell, the light of the scout commitment burned brightly wherever there was a Girl Scout Troop.

In Appomattox rain prohibited the outside ceremony, but spirits were not dampened as the girls, Flames of Freedom celebration was held in the elementary gymnasium. The impressive service opened with the scout color guard, pledge to the flag and "My Country Tis of Thee," led by Peggy Clark - Brownie Consultant.

Participating troops were: Junior Troop 322, leaders June Coleman, Velma Johnson, and Nancy Long; Troop 336, leaders Margaret Nash, Linda Howard and Catherine Nash; Cadette Troop 311, leaders Dalana Barksdale and June Coleman and Brownie Troop 308, leader Brenda Brinkley.

The girls stood in their traditional scout circle showing their unity and sisterhood. Darlene Howard read what the lighted tapers symbolized in the pledge that the Girl Scouts will carry forward the light of freedom for all people. It was a tribute to action to improve the quality of life in our home community.

This bicentennial ceremony was begun by Mrs. Betty Ford who lighted the first candle at the national Scout Convention in Washington.

Guest speaker, Watt Abbitt, recognized the Girl Scouts and Brownies as a vital part of our community. He congratulated the volunteer leaders who give so freely of themselves to mold the lives of our young people. He encouraged girls and leaders to continue in their worthwhile activities.
